RECORDS OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF DOVER
DUTCHESS CO.,
N. Y.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH OF CHRIST,

in Pawling Presinct, Dutchess County and Province of New York; being met at a Church meeting, January the 14th Domini 1776. Considering the irregularity of the Church Records, being kept on loose papers: Voted that Samuel Waldo Elder, and Brother Timothy Babcock should Collect and transcribe them, into this book.

BEEMANS PRECINCT, November 8th, 1757

In answer to a request from this place. A meeting was called, and the nature of a Church Covenant opened by William Marsh a Baptist Minister, in the Jarseys and then under him as Moderator; we whose names are subscribed to this Covenant told our experience of the Grace of God, bestowed on us, and our Desire and Willingness to be in Church state, and satisfaction with one another on the Ninth Instant, in a Solemn manner, Signed being all Baptists and were received by the Above said William Marsh, and by him declared to be a Gospel Church of Jesus Christ

William Marsh,
(A Baptist minister from New Jersey)

May 25th, 1758- Brother Samuel Waldo was ordained our Elder by Elder Willard and Elder Marsh.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that this is crucial for ensuring transparency and accountability in the organization's operations.

2. The second part outlines the specific procedures for recording and reporting these activities. It details the steps involved in data collection, analysis, and the preparation of reports for management review.

3. The third part addresses the role of the audit committee in overseeing the financial reporting process. It highlights the committee's responsibility for ensuring that the information provided to the board of directors is reliable and complete.

4. The fourth part discusses the importance of internal controls in preventing errors and fraud. It describes how these controls are implemented and monitored to ensure the integrity of the financial statements.

5. The fifth part provides a summary of the key findings from the audit and offers recommendations for improving the organization's financial reporting practices. It suggests areas where additional controls or training may be needed.

6. The final part of the document is a conclusion that reiterates the commitment to high standards of financial reporting and transparency. It expresses confidence in the organization's ability to meet these standards and maintain the trust of its stakeholders.

May 19th, 1768. Henry Dawson, requested Opportunity to improve his Gift by way of preaching and Opportunity being given the Church could not give him Fellowship therein.

April 4th, 1771. A request from the Church belonging in Canaan and New Malbury for the help ^{of} Agrippe Martin. Gifts, and his mind seeming to agree therewith, it was a Vote of the Church to leave him freedom to remove among or Visit them as he found but did require, and Providence opened the door to him.

June 10th, 1775 At a preparatory meeting it was voted in the Church that Agrippe Martin had a public Gift to preach and exhort occasionally, when ever the Opportunity may call.

BUILDINGS

A. A. Denton, the Church Clerk writes, "There have been three Church Buildings; The first called the "red meeting house" stood up on the old road where the cemetery now is, and was in use in 1812.

The second stood on the present site, and was occupied as a Union meeting house, The Methodists and Baptist using it alternately. The present building was erected or built over in the year 1855, the expenses of which names of those who contributed will be found in the back part of one of the books
